

‘This COVID life Asia’ image series (example only)

International students, stranded in Australia without government assistance, receive free food. Sydney, 2020. Credit: XX

Child in an Australian hospital to receive a COVID swab test, June 2020. The government encouraged anyone displaying any COVID symptoms to get tested.

People wearing masks due to COVID-19 in the Australian town of Ballarat, August 2020. Credit: XX.

Playgrounds across the Australian state of Victoria were closed during some COVID-19 lockdown periods. Melbourne, August 2021.

A 'Spoonville' village in Melbourne, 2020. Children across the city made 'spoon people' and placed them near footpaths and other public places.