

Growing the Australia-India relationship

Growing the Australia-India relationship | RSS.com

As Australia's relationship with China continues to sour, it should come as no surprise that Canberra is bolstering security ties with New Delhi. Additionally, the two governments are working hard to forge a comprehensive trade agreement.

But is a mutual suspicion of Beijing a sound basis for closer ties? What are the real issues that bind, and separate, India and Australia? And who will be the winners and losers of any bilateral free-trade deal? Australia-India Institute CEO Lisa Singh and political scientist Dr Pradeep Taneja scrutinise the evolving Australia-India relationship with presenter Ali Moore.
