

Video - Indonesia Forum 30th Anniversary - The Future of the Study of Indonesia in Australia

In commemorating its 30th anniversary, the Indonesia Forum held a panel discussion on Friday 3 December 2021 exploring Australia's capability within and outside academia to engage with and study Indonesia at a time when this capacity is under increasing pressure. The panel considered why this capacity is important and what steps are needed to ensure a deepening of mutual understanding and strengthened relationships between Australia and Indonesia in a variety of fields.

The recorded video from the event can be watched below.
